7. Technical specialisation – Article 13(4) REE

Where alternative papers are set, I wish to take the paper(s) in the following technical specialisations:

- ☐ Chemistry
☐ Electricity/Mechanics

The above declaration is not binding.

8. Request to use a language other than English, French or German – Article 15(3) REE

- ☐ I request to give my answers in a language other than English, French or German, namely _____.

9. Examination centres – Article 23 REE

I apply to take the examination at

- ☐ a location in Munich appointed by the European Patent Office
☐ the branch of the European Patent Office at The Hague (Rijswijk)
☐ a location in Berlin appointed by the European Patent Office
☐ the central industrial property office of a contracting state or a location appointed by the head of that office, namely in

_____.

Non-EPO locations at which the examination has already been held are Berne, Bristol, Dublin, Helsinki, Madrid, Munich (DPMA), Paris, Rome, Stockholm, Taastrup and Vienna.

Candidates should indicate whether, if their choice cannot be met, they would then like to sit the examination in Munich or at another centre, or withdraw their application.

- ☐ I apply to take the examination ☐ in Munich ☐ at another centre.
☐ I withdraw from the examination.

10. Contact Database

Candidates are offered the opportunity to contact other candidates of the 2007 European qualifying examination. For this reason, a contact database containing details of candidates wishing to participate will be created. Participation in this program is optional.

- ☐ I consent to the publication of the data provided, which will be made available via the internet exclusively to other candidates participating in the programme. Furthermore, I undertake to use the opportunity to contact other candidates of the 2007 European qualifying examination for the exclusive purpose of preparing for the examination, and to treat as strictly confidential the password enabling me access to the data of the other participating candidates, which may not be transmitted to third parties, irrespective of whether or not they are candidates for the European qualifying examination.

The following data will be provided:

surname, first name(s), country, e-mail, examination paper(s) to be taken, preferred official language.

Please tick and/or fill in the respective boxes, if you wish the following additional information to be accessible:

- ☐ address ☐ telephone ☐ fax

comment for fellow-candidates:

11. Acknowledgement of receipt

Receipt of your application for enrolment will be acknowledged by e-mail. Candidates who have not received an acknowledgement by 15 December 2006 should contact the Examination Secretariat.

The invitation to sit the examination pursuant to Article 22(2) REE will be dispatched end of January 2007.

12. Filing of applications

12.1 Applications must be filed with the Examination Secretariat at the address given above.

Your application must reach the European Patent Office no later than 30 June 2006, for candidates who benefit from the extended closing date no later than 20 October 2006.

Candidates are advised to submit their application (enrolment form plus enclosures) as early as possible and by registered letter with advice of delivery.

12.2 Applications may be filed by facsimile reproducing all the documents required by Article 21 REE to the following No.: +49-89-2399 5140.

In case of facsimile filing, subsequent filing of the original application documents is not necessary.

Where a document transmitted by facsimile is illegible or incomplete, the document will be treated as not having been received to the extent that it is illegible or that the attempted transmission failed.

Candidates may also hand in their application at the EPO post room and have a copy stamped to confirm receipt.

13. Declaration

I am aware that filing incomplete, late or unsigned applications, filling in documents incorrectly or incompletely, or failing to pay the fee in due time may lead to non-acceptance of the application.

I am familiar with the Regulation on the European qualifying examination (supplement to OJ EPO 12/2005; see also: REE, <http://eqe.european-patent-office.org/>) referred to above and with the Announcement of the European qualifying examination 2007 (OJ EPO 3/2006, p. 207 ff.).

I have ticked the boxes which apply to me.
